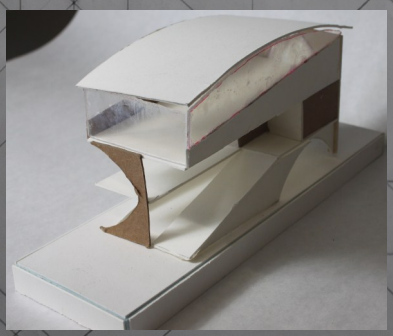
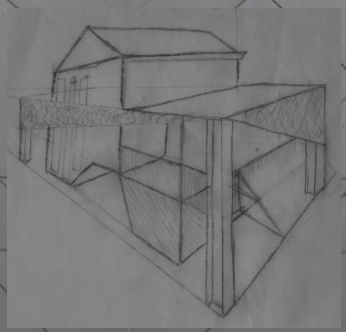
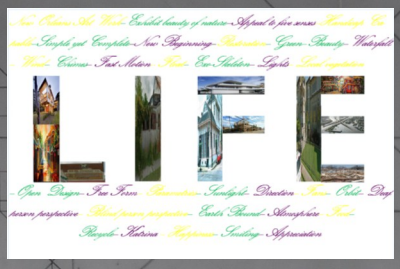
LIFE

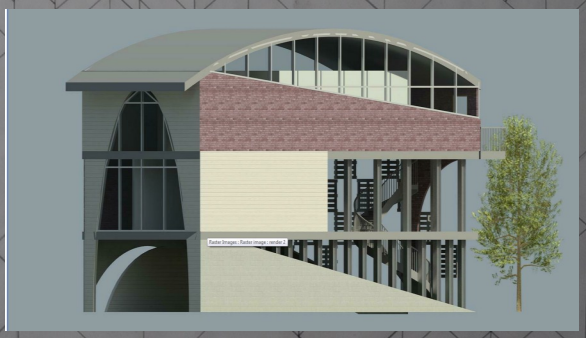
This building was designed to evoke the ideas and the culture of New Orleans and to embody the life of it. This home was built to be a comfortable and easy access home for people of all kind. If you are handicapped don't worry this house is built to handle and manage all problems. The house prevents majority of damage from horrible weather such as hurricanes and even has a second story garage to prevent major financial damage due to floods.

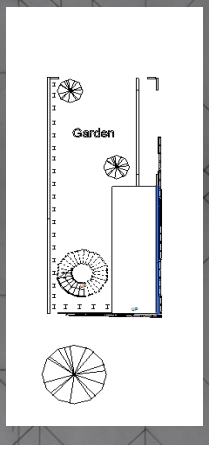
Model / Sketching

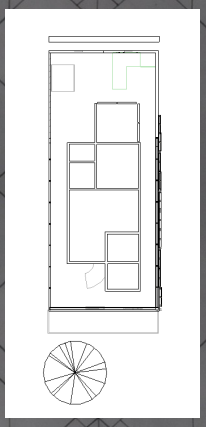












Renderings / Floor Plan